

Position Title:	Manager, Financial Audit and Related Services (FARS)	Supervisor Title:	Director, FARS
Classification:	Band 3	Supervisor Position #:	TBD
Work Unit:	Financial Audit and Related Services	Organization:	Office of the Auditor General

Context

The Office of the Auditor General (OAG) serves and reports to the Legislative Assembly of B.C. by providing independent assessments of the provincial government's operations and financial statements. Staff assist the Auditor General in fulfilling that mandate.

The work of the Auditor General spans all provincial government ministries, as well as Crown corporations, and the broader public sector. The Auditor General's assessments are presented to the Legislative Assembly and made public. Through these reports, the Auditor General assists the elected members of the Legislative Assembly to hold government accountable and improve the delivery of services to the public.

Job Overview

Reporting to the Director, FARS, the Manager leads and conducts financial and, periodically, direct assurance audit projects. The Manager ensures all assigned projects are planned, conducted and reported according to office policies, professional accounting and assurance standards, and the office's system of quality management. The Manager also ensures that all relevant issues and concerns are identified and resolved or raised to the Director or FARS portfolio leadership for resolution.

The Manager is the office's front-line contact for their assigned audits and is key to developing relationships and moving audit projects forward. The Manager regularly communicates with audit contacts in finance, operational and program areas. Work will also involve coordination with other groups within the office.

The Manager also contributes to their team's development on a broader level by demonstrating skill in project management, and the office's behavioural competencies.

BEHAVIOURAL COMPETENCIES

Leading Self and Others

Change Management	Is the ability to support a change initiative that has been mandated within the organization. It involves helping the organization's members understand what the change means to them and providing the ongoing guidance and support that will maintain enthusiasm and commitment to the change process. People with this competency willingly embrace and champion change. They take advantage of every opportunity to explain their vision of the future to others and gain their buy-in.
Developing Self and Others	Involves a genuine intent to foster the long-term learning or development of others through coaching, managing performance and mentoring. Its focus is on developmental intent and effect rather than on a formal role of training. For this competency to be considered, the individual's actions should be driven by a genuine desire to develop others, rather than by a need to transfer adequate skills to complete tasks. It also involves proactively taking actions to improve personal capability. It also involves being willing to assess one's own level of development or expertise relative to one's current job, or as part of focused career planning.

Achieving Business Results

Planning, Organization and Coordinating	Involves proactively planning, establishing priorities and allocating resources. It is expressed by developing and implementing increasingly complex plans. It also involves monitoring and adjusting work to accomplish goals and deliver to the organization's mandate.
Problem Solving and Judgment	Is the ability to analyze problems systematically, organize information, identify key factors, identify underlying causes and generate solutions.

Personal Effectiveness

Building Partnerships	Is the ability to build long-term or on-going relationships with stakeholders (e.g. someone who shares an interest in what you are doing). This type of relationship is often quite deliberate and is typically focused on the way the relationship is conducted. Implicit in this competency is demonstrating a respect for and stating positive expectations of the stakeholder.
Innovation	Indicates an effort to improve performance by doing or promoting new things, such as introducing a previously unknown or untried solution or procedure to the specific area or organization.

Interpersonal Relationships

Conflict Management

Is the ability to develop working relationships that facilitate the prevention and/or resolution of conflicts within the organization

Equity, Diversity and Inclusion

Cultural Agility

The ability to work respectfully, knowledgeably, and effectively with Indigenous people and/or people from different social, ethnic and/or cultural backgrounds, cultures and identities. It is noticing and readily adapting to cultural uniqueness in order to create a sense of safety for all. It is openness to unfamiliar experiences, transforming feelings of nervousness or anxiety into curiosity and appreciation. It is examining one's own culture and worldview and the culture of the Office of the Auditor General, and to notice their commonalities and distinctions with Indigenous cultures and worldviews. It is recognition of the ways that personal and professional values may conflict or align with those of Indigenous people. It is the capacity to relate to or allow for differing cultural perspectives and being willing to experience a personal shift in perspective.
